

Planning a Narrative Story: The Setting

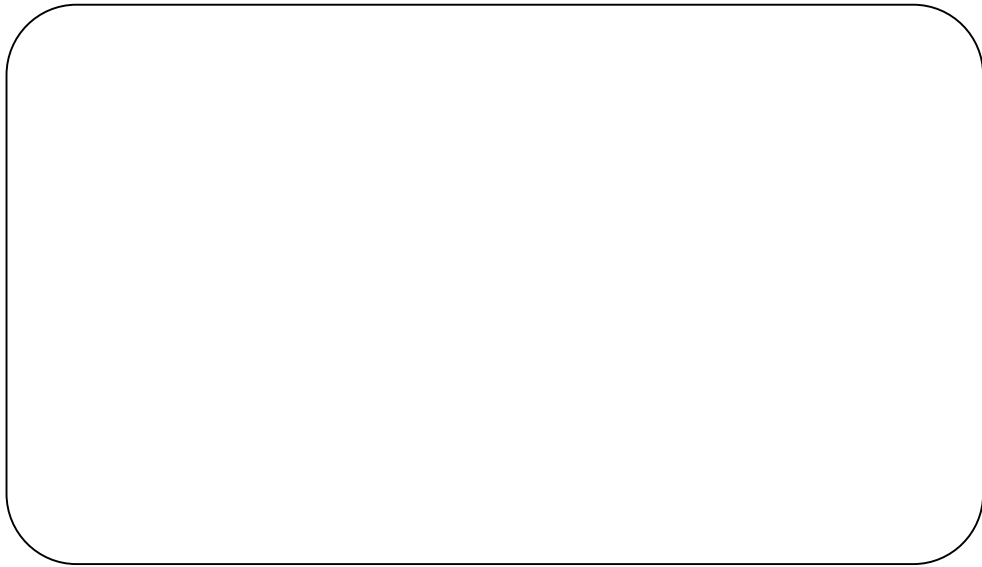

The setting will play an important part in your story.

Importance of setting	It gives your characters a place to act and react.
The Problem	Your reader has not been to where your story took place
The Solution	Describe the setting and transport your reader.

Questions to think about

- What does the setting look like?
- What are the colors?
- What are the textures?
- What does it sound like?
- What is in front of your characters?
- What time of day/year is it?

Draw a quick sketch of your setting (no characters allowed)
